A deputy communications officer of the New Patriotic Party (NPP), Kwame Baffoe has urged all persons who have received last minute appointment letters from the outgoing Mahama administration to consider using them as 'toilet rolls'.

'Abrony3 DC' as he is known said the incoming Akufo-Addo administration would review all the 'last minute' appointments of the Mahama administration.

"If you have been given any of such letters, I suggest you consider using it as T-rolls because on the 8th of January, those appointment letters will never enter any office...so just be warned...," he cautioned.

The NPP has accused the outgoing administration of offering last minute appointments to footsoldiers of the NDC party which they failed to employ during their eight years in power.

President Mahama on Tuesday December 20, 2016 also appointed the heads of CHRAJ and NCCE and also increased the allowances of National Service Personnel to GHC 559.04. The salaries of public sector workers were also increased by 12.5%.

The NPP's transition team has signaled that they would want review most of the actions of the Mahama administration during the transition period.

And Abrony³ speaking on Oman FM's Boiling Point Programme on Tuesday said he supports the review as according to him, the Mahama administration is taking the actions in bad faith.

He claimed that the appointment goes to the district level where the District Coordinators of the National Youth Employed Scheme are having their appointments renewed to two years.

Kwame Baffoe further warned that he would personally take it upon himself to ensure the termination of the appointment of the coordinators in the Brong Ahafo region and later communicate his decision to Nana Addo.

"If the NDC party big men really care about the footsoldiers, why would they want to offer you last minute appointment, why were they when you were suffering...?", he quizzed.

The man who also doubles as the Brong Ahafo Youth Organiser of the NPP signaled that the incoming Nana Addo administration would chase 'every single pesewa' to pay the salary increments and allowances.
